ABOUT Zermatt, Switzerland

- Highest ski resort in Europe (5,726 feet); snow certainty - you can ski 365 days of the year.
- Zermatt does not allow cars; only silent electric vehicles and horse-drawn sleds.
- The Matterhorn - one of the world's most photographed mountains towers over Zermatt.
- Ski in 4 areas: Sunnegga, Gornergrat, Klein Matterhorn and Schwarzsee; 224 miles of pistes.
- Or ski to Cervinia in Italy via the Plateau Rosa glacier for lunch & shopping (add'l lift ticket).
- The Gornergrat, Europe's highest cog railway, brings passengers over dramatic bridges and tunnels to the summit. Enjoy panoramic views of Switzerland's highest peaks.
- Ski Klein Matterhorn where you can look the Matterhorn right in the eye.
- Savor fantastic lunches at cozy mountain restaurants surrounded by spectacular scenery.
- Zermatt's runs are carefully groomed for every skill level. 60 % of runs are red (intermediate); 20 % of runs are expert (black). Longest run is 15 miles.
- Cervinia, Italy is an intermediate skier's paradise with wide and deserted pistes.
- Expert skiers can enjoy ski touring and heli-skiing over untouched snow.
- Non-skier or want to take a day off? – Enjoy the ice rink or a sunny terrace. Go snowshoeing or sledding at the Gornergrat and take in the beautiful views of the Matterhorn.
